NoCirc protested in Lansing today, will protest in Royal Oak tomorrow

Posted By Alysa Zavala-Offman on Fri, Sep 12, 2014 at 4:48 pm

NoCirc of Michigan, an organization that protests the act of male circumcision, marched on the state's capitol today, hoping to impress on both doctors and the public their opposition to the practice of removing a male infant's foreskin. They were joined by the Bloodstained Men and Their Friends, a group that dresses in white with a large, red, paint splotch on their crotch.

Tomorrow, the same organization will hold the largest anti-circumcision protest in the Midwest and the largest hospital protest in the country at Royal Oak Beaumont. The protest is from 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Interested in joining? Get more info here.
