

Search WSAV.com

CONNECT:

Movement to Stop Male Circumcision Reaches Savannah

Posted: Nov 05, 2014 10:49 AM CUT

Updated: Nov 05, 2014 11:38 AM CUT

By Kate Sparrow, Executive Producer

SAVANNAH, GA - An international movement to stop the circumcising of baby boys has reached Savannah.

A group of protesters from the Bloodstained Men and Their Friends gathered on Wednesday at the corner of Derenne and Abercorn Wednesday, near St. Joseph's/Candler.

On social media, organizers call it a peaceful, family-friendly demonstration to draw attention to the international conversation.

1430 East Victory Drive
Savannah, GA 31404

Telephone: 912.651.0300

Fax: 912.651.0320

Email: newsemailalert@wsav.com