If you've driven down Blue Lakes near Pole Line today, you've no doubt seen some guys carrying some signs and wearing some very interesting - ahem - pants. I felt it was my responsibility to stop and find out what was going on. This is the result of that. I'll get right to the point.

The guy you see in the picture is Dominic Beard. He is a part of a group called Bloodstained Men. They don't believe in infant circumcision - a lot. He said they stopped in Twin today, which is a part of over 60 cities in total that they'll protest in.

The bottom line for Bloodstained Men is they are convinced that circumcision is destructive. They claim this may cause problems later in life for guys. They don't seem to have a problem with adults that choose to have this done, but it's babies they're most concerned about.

Why the very interesting pants design? Because they can.

If you would like to learn more about their cause, they do have a website.
